

THE OPPOSITES IN MUSIC

Flutist Barbara Allen, actor & singer Anne Fielding, composer Edward Green

Do you want to be stirred by music of all styles, periods, and countries and learn why it moves you?

In this exciting class you'll study music from pre-classical to romantic to the latest hit; from Monteverdi to Ellington; from Bach to the Beatles to a song that will be at the top of the charts next week and see what makes for beauty in music.

Edward Green

Barbara Allen

Beethoven

Chopin

Mozart

The Beatles
Capital Records

You'll also see what a particular composition or performance says about your very own life and your biggest hopes through this landmark principle, stated by philosopher Eli Siegel: "The world, art, and self explain each other: each is the aesthetic oneness of opposites."

Alternate Sundays, 4-5:30 pm

7 classes per semester Course fee $50

Mid-term audits are welcome with prior permission: $12

To register call: 212.777.4490

• This course is part of the curriculum offered by the Aesthetic Realism Foundation, a not-for-profit educational foundation.
141 Greene Street, New York, NY 10012 • In SoHo •
www.AestheticRealism.org

Bach & Family, the Music Lesson