The speakers—artists and Terrain Gallery coordinators—show the thrilling practicality of art for people’s lives today. Eli Siegel, critic, poet, and founder of Aesthetic Realism, explained in this landmark principle:

“All beauty is a making one of opposites, and the making one of opposites is what we are going after in ourselves.”

Dorothy Koppelman on MARC CHAGALL
Painter, teacher of The Critical Inquiry

Marcia Rackow on HENRI MATISSE
Painter, teacher of The Visual Arts and the Opposites

Donita Ellison on DEBORAH BUTTERFIELD
Sculptor, lecturer on the Aesthetic Realism Teaching Method

With an introduction by
Dale Laurin, Architect, speaker in the series Architecture & You