Learning to Like the World

—A class for young people, ages 5-12

Taught by Aesthetic Realism Consultants

Barbara Allen & Robert Murphy

Guest Teacher: Arnold Perey, Anthropologist, Aesthetic Realism Consultant

People Thousands of Years Ago & Now—Are We Like Them? or, What Can We Learn about Ourselves from a Young Person of New Guinea?

This class for young people between the ages of 5 and 12 teaches that their, and everyone's, deepest desire is to like the world; and that everything—from a flower to mathematics to their mothers—can be used to like the world. Through stories, pictures, and objects from New Guinea, Dr. Perey will illustrate this. He says:

"People of every time and place can teach us about ourselves. All people are trying to put opposites together—toughness and gentleness, accuracy and wildness, and many more."

Registration is required. You can register a child anytime from the first day of each month through noon of the Friday before that month's class. To register, email Registrar@AestheticRealism.org, or call 212-777-4490. Fee $8
